*Incomplete applications will not be accepted. Must present primary permit for application to be processed.

In consideration of granting said permit, I hereby specifically agree to each of the following conditions and specifically waive all objections thereto:

- This permit is non-transferable. Permit will expire on the same date as the primary permit. Renewal notices will not be sent out for automatic renewal. In order to renew this secondary permit, an updated primary permit from the permitting agency must be submitted.
Prior to operating the business authorized by said permit, all fees relating to said permit shall be paid.
All businesses and premises operated pursuant to said permit will be conducted and maintained in accordance with all relevant health statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations.
During the term of said permit, I, and my employees will allow Utah County Health Department inspector's access to the premises during normal working hours to conduct such inspections as may be necessary to guarantee compliance with health codes. I specifically waive any right to demand the issuance of a search warrant or other investigative order prior to conducting such inspections.

I understand and agree that violation of this application agreement may Result in suspension, termination, or non-renewal of said permit.
